Dear Jack;

I am so terribly worried about your trial coming up. I can't understand why all this commotion over what you did and why you weren't freed long ago. Anyone knows you were temporarily insane at the moment when you did it and believe me Jack, many people would have done the very thing you did if they would have had the chance. I was plenty mad at Lee Oswald for a long time and I would have killed him too if I'd of had the chance so I guess I was temporarily insane too. Oh, why don't they let you go?

If you do get the death penalty, I know a lot of people will feel like moving to a different country. May God be with you Jack and help you. Sincerely, your friend & sister, Helen Stone

I still think its terrible what he ~~can~~ do.
He was such a crazy messed up kid - but I got over the madness of wanting to kill him.
Oh yes, I do hope they'll let you go. Its

Jack Ruby Answers Sterling Woman's Letter

Jack Ruby, accused killer of suspected assassin Harvey Oswald, has replied to a letter of sympathy from a Sterling woman.

Mrs. Vesta Mollohan of 302 N. 2nd street received the following note, written in longhand, from Ruby, who is now in a Dallas jail awaiting trial:

Dear Mrs. Mollohan,

Please forgive me for the long delay in answer to your most wonderful letter.

God bless you and yours for your good wishes and prayers, also your faith in me.

May you live many, many more years in good health.

You have helped to lift my spirit and courage. Please remember me to your friends and wish them the best also.

I admire and respect you, for at your age to be so considerate to take time to write such a lengthy letter.

Dear Mr. Ruby,

I have never met you, but I feel as though I know you. The reason I am writing to you is that I believe you need a friend who knows the value of prayer and while we do not know each other, I want to tell you that I have been praying for you.

Please read the paper I am sending and if I can be of any help, you need only to leave me know. I have found a real joy in having my sins forgiven and I want to help others who are in trouble to have the same satisfaction.

There is nothing too hard for God and He is manifesting His love to many people today.

A judge in Beaufort, South Africa, got an assist from a chicken in deciding a case.

Armed Michael and a woman neighbor had filed claims of ownership of a chicken. While evidence was being heard, the chicken in question walked into the court and pecked down beside Michael. The judge awarded the chicken to him.

Dear sir;

I have read much of your troubles, which has prompted me to wonder if you did not have similar trouble like I had.

When I was about 70 years old I contacted two friends who had just had a fight in front of the corner drug store. A doctor some 35 or 40 ~~had~~ about 1854 had just beaten a much older ex mayor an agnostic, had him crumpled down hat and glasses off face bleeding, he up over him cursing and using the most profane language, M.F.S.O.B. I stood by, two passed by and tried to quite him he shoved them aside. I didn't think of having anything to do with ^{it} until an ex policeman came in on the other side, so I thought I would go in and help him quite the man, just before I got to him something picked me up and thrust my whole weight 180° against him with my fist in his mouth. As soon as I came to myself I would not have done so for anything, ^{didn't cost me anything.} I will never know the cause, certainly ^{two} was one of the unseen powers, that causes us to do and think all we do, the right or the wrong, the Lord or the devil, I can't think it was the devil, as there was no forethought or malice.

You have my sympathy and I hope you will come out alright here, but the most important is the FINAL JUDGMENT.

Yours very truly,
W. H. Reid.

Have you any card receive?

This paper, I have my little my give to my confirmation. This is first letter for you and hope I make you a little joy with this letter, a little surprise!!

Here is a picture from all the letters I have receive in the year 1963 since, as I want for a Expression a little money and one money-box for them. The money-box being plenty actual. I hope this letter make you, joy, joy, joy. That is the best medicine in your situation? yes!!

Dear Jack,

Just a note to you to keep your chin up. I am following your trial with much interest and can not believe that an injustice will be done in your case.

It is quite evident that the citizens of Dallas, those who have the say, will leave no stone unturned to try and redeem themselves at your expense.

I would say, Jack, that you should not be discouraged if the first trial should go against you. There is the appeal, which as you know will be out of Dallas and will be before different people.

Your attorney in charge, Mr. Belli, appears to me to be a very brilliant man.

In case you have wondered why I have such an interest in your case, I might say that first I approve of what you did. Second, I was aware of the atmosphere in Texas before the assassination of President Kennedy. I have no regard for the "right wing".

Their "press releases" stating that Oswald tried to kill General Walker and now Nixon is ridiculous. They are anticipating the Warren Committee Report.

Remember this, Jack, there are millions of Americans in your corner. Most people have opinions about everything, but lack the guts to back them up.

With best regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

MORRIS M. PAYNE

Dear Jack:

I hope by now you have received my letter. I was about to mail it Thursday morning on my way to work, but, the day before I suffered a strained back, and although it didn't seem too painful at the time, the next morning when I started to move around it was all I could to walk a short distance. I wasn't very bad when I sat still but I suddenly realized that I could not work on the floor a whole day. I decided to call my boss and let her know that her most valuable salesgirl (that's me) was indisposed, and what do you know she didn't seem upset at all by my inconvenience and apparently she believed my story. I guess she thought I was telling the truth - and I was. I told brother "Hy" about it and he said "it was due to old age." Some people don't seem to care about my feelings at all. For that unkind remark when I make soup I'll throw ashes in it - that'll teach him. I have been back to work in fact I'll only stay home one day as I said earlier "how could they manage without a good worker like myself?" Things are just about the same here since we all work to don't have to much time to give this place the attention it needs. This will have to do for now - hope to write again soon.

Dear Jack your trial may be under way before you get the books I am making you. What a contrast in these two books.

I have thought a good many times of the song that was written in England at the time of the Nazi bombings. It came at a time the people needed a moral boost, and would come thing like this. "There'll be blue birds over the white cliffs of Dover just you wait and see."

What has happened to you could have happened in a good many cities and to many a person. If it had been a premeditated affair I would look at it differently.

I am not a Senator over here at Riverton, just a Carpenter with a sympathetic heart. Mrs Fullerton is a School Teacher we have raised five fine children.

The books you keep as long as you wish. If your attorney can find any thing in them to help you, he would be welcome to use.

We would be happy for you to write your mind in them.

Dear Mr. Texan:

In the summer of 1869 a poem was written by me and sent to the Chamber of Commerce at Dayton, Texas. It's essence was to simply identify the geographic location of Dayton. By a coincidence, Dayton, Texas is the birthplace of the then Governor of Texas, Price Daniel.

Seeing a chance for some free publicity, the local "bigwigs" handed the poem with my letter to the local newspaper, who in turn published it on the front page.

The Houston Press and other newspapers in Texas printed the poem and soon the leading newspapers in Boston and New England carried the story —

Their plan had worked — the story was snowballing and picking up speed from day to day.

I was phoned, long distance by the president of Dayton's Chamber of Commerce, who invited me to come to Texas — I told him I would think it over.

After a few days had gone by, the president of the Chamber of Commerce evidently was fretting not to lose this chance of free publicity, he called again, this time making several promises and a challenge to entice me to come to Texas —

I finally accepted his challenge and made the trip with my mother and my wife.

These men wanted publicity on one hand, and to humiliate me on the other. The newspapers were aware of only the "Good" part of the story — They succeeded in both —

A Rodeo was held; supposedly in my honor and an admission was charged to the public, (I did not receive a red cent).

I was asked to ride a horse in the rodeo arena, I was to come in at a gallop, holding the reins with one hand and waving the Texas hat they gave me with the other.

I did this, but no one asked the "Yank" if he could ride a horse.

The next day with the heat up in the middle nineties they coaxed and prodded me to bull-dose a steer, which I did (I have movies to prove this).

I was made to drape the confederate flag around me —

I did all the things I was asked to do good naturedly.

They did not do the things they had promised over the phone and in a letter to me. Their promises was the reason I made the trip.

I left Texas dejected and humiliated. I had to pay all the expenses of the trip from Boston to Texas.

I am a "Damn Yank" to the Texans and my poem opened a door for them to capitalize on the situation and at the same time ridicule a northerner, their feelings were vented — but how small I see those few.

Since then —

Adlai Stevenson visited Texas and he was "Bpat" upon — then — our beloved President — John Fitzgerald Kennedy also a Bostonian, was brutally murdered —

I think it fitting and proper at this time, for all Oseant Texans to heed the call of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial Library Fund —

Send some of those Texas dollars to Boston, so that in death, our beloved President may be honored by giving to the American people the library he so earnestly strived for.

Personally, I love Texas, and as a Texan citizen am trying to reach your ears and your hearts to a cause I know all good Texans approve.

Show Boston and the Nation that "Texas" is not a dirty word up here.

Dear Mr. Ruby,

I wish you the best of luck in your forth coming trial, I feel you are innocent and just pushed by the circumstances of the day before.
Please accept my support.

I would appreciate an autograph and possibly a picture from you. I am a high school senior and feel you are in an important case because of the President involved and would like a remembrance of you. Please send it to the above address.

Sincerely yours,
Stephen Rugg

Dear Sir,

I believe no one doubts that you are a sincere conservationist. Despite the fact country was larger the year President I sincerely hope that the names on and around parkland to justify your fall to such a very low level.

Thus, loyalty should be the measure you are for shooting down a small is still not taken in any direct transaction you

But I am with you there.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Bell.

I would like to give my experience as an epileptic in behalf of Mr. Rudy. This type of illness can begin at any time, at any age and due to any number of things. An injury, persecution, strain, organic disease, or mental stress can contribute to the onset.

I was treated by a Dallas psychiatrist for quite some time. My illness is under control. The patient knows what his capacity is and must limit himself. A person can do anything he wants to do as long as he is happy doing it and does not over do. My doctor made the statement he did not know which of these factors contributed to the onset of the attacks, but the patient himself has to determine the cause, then keep that factor from causing him distress. A person can also have an attack of epilepsy without knowing it. This usually happens in cold sleep. An attack is a release of stored up energy and can be a split-second act of which the patient is aware, but helpless to do anything about.

Believe me, a person who commits an act, whether it be murder or sodomy, under duress due to phreatic epilepsy, suffers more than any human can imagine, because he is usually doing that which is completely against his true nature.

Mr. Jack Rubenstein
Criminal Courts & Jails Bldg.
Dallas, Texas

Feb. 28, '64.

To Jack Rubenstein, known as Jack Ruby, with hopes that he will soon be appreciated with the respect due a public-spirited citizen:

A TRIBUTE TO AN A-1 CITIZEN

LISTEN, DALLAS, TEXAS, TO AN ANGUISHED NATION'S CRY, LISTEN, ALSO, ANYONE, WHO'D FLAUNT THE LORD ON HIGH, LISTEN, COMMUNISTIC SCUM,
WE'LL GET YOU YET, AND ON THE RUN.

WE HAD SETTLED ALL OUR DIFFERENCES RIGHT WITHIN THE POLLS, AND WHEN ANARCHY SROWED ITS UGLY HAND,
AN AVENGING ANGEL TOOK OUR STAND.
AN ANARCHIST DIED, 'T WAS ALL HE DESERVED.
AS SURELY AS A CHURCH BELL TOLLS,
AS SURELY AS A DRUMMER ROLLS.

"AS YE LIVE BY THE SWORD, YE DIE BY THE SWORD".
SO AN ANARCHIST DIED,
JUSTICE WAS SERVED.

PLEASE NOTE THAT I MENTIONED ANARCHY, WHICH SHOULD HELP AS IT IS A LEGAL FACT THAT WHEN A PRESIDENT OR RULER, CHOSEN OR ACCEPTED BY THE PEOPLE IS ASSASSINATED, THE COUNTRY IS TEMPORARILY IN A STATE OF ANARCHY, WHICH IS CERTAINLY ONE OF THE WORST CRIMES, AND AS MANY AMERICAN CITIZENS HAVE PUBLICLY STATED, INCLUDING IN WHITING IN "VOICE OF THE PEOPLE", DAILY NEWS, NEW YORK CITY, "JACK RUBY DID WHAT ANY AMERICAN WOULD DO IF HE HAD THE CHANCE".

With hopes that patriots everywhere will rally to your defense,

An American citizen, a lady.

"There hath not failed one word of all his good promise."

Dear Jack,

Because you're deserving of only the best.
May this day and all your days be blessed!

Don't be in despair your friend is praying for you and hoping with you.

Love,
